

Year 1

Autumn term, 2nd half

Home-‘worker’ Challenges

Take a browse at the different options, choose some that you fancy giving a go.

😊 I hope I have planned some things that you will enjoy 😊

See if you can manage one each week and earn a reward in class each time!

Have as little or as much help from your family as you need.

Good Luck! You can do it!

🌲 Topic – ‘Traditional Tales’ 🌲
Historian Using 4 or more photos (or copies) create a timeline of your life so far. You could include a copy of the scan picture from when you were growing inside your mummy, too.	Naturalist Draw a picture, or find a magazine photo, of an animal from a Traditional tale. Find out 3 facts about the real animal and 3 made-up features of that character and write them down.	Writer/Illustrator Choose your favourite Traditional Tale, or Christmas story, and create a story map to go with it.
Chef Adult support needed Bake something for Santa – maybe a Traditional favourite of his, or something a little more healthy for him. Have a good think.	Choose your dream and chase it! Draw, and write about, what you would like to do, or be, when you are older, including what sorts of tasks it will involve. (I wanted to be a teacher – I chose my dream, and I chased it! You can too!)	Carpenter/Joiner Adult support needed Jesus’ Earth dad Joseph was a Carpenter. Can you use woodwork skills and an adult to help you create a stable, to then fill with a Nativity scene, of your choice. (My sister-in-law has one with rubber ducks!)
Developing fine-motor & independence skills If you still can’t yet do this: Tie your shoe laces every day for one week. Show us in class that you can do it.	Researcher/Reviewer Using books, the internet or someone you know – find out some Traditional Tales or Christmas stories that we have not mentioned in class – and write a review/ recommendation of them.	Artist Draw, paint or collage a picture that could be used as a front cover of a Traditional Tale story book.
